Todd B. McCaffrey MAJOR GENERAL

Deputy Commanding General

Major General Todd B. McCaffrey currently serves as Deputy Commanding General, US Army Pacific. A native of Hudson, Ohio, he was commissioned in the infantry following graduation from the United States Military Academy in 1986. His military and civilian education includes the Infantry Officer's Basic and Advanced Courses, the Command and General Staff College, and the United States Army War College. He holds Masters Degrees in National Security Studies from the Army War College and in Economics from the Colorado School of Mines.

Major General McCaffrey initially served with 1st Battalion, 87th Infantry at Fort Drum, New York. Following the Advanced Course, he then served in 1st Battalion, 14th Infantry, 25th Infantry Division as rifle company commander and as Aide de Camp to the Commanding General.

Following graduate school, MG McCaffrey was a Battalion and then Brigade Operations Officer in 1st Battalion, 502nd Infantry and 2nd Brigade, 101st Airborne Division (Air Assault), Fort Campbell, Kentucky. Departing Fort Campbell, he served as a Special Operations Program Analyst with the US Special Operations Command at MacDill Air Force Base, Florida.

Major General McCaffrey commanded 1st Battalion, 5th Infantry Regiment, 25th Infantry Division, at Fort Lewis, Washington, leading the battalion through its transformation into a Stryker Infantry Battalion and a combat deployment to Iraq. Following attendance at the Army War College, he returned to Schofield Barracks and the 25th Infantry Division, assuming command of 2nd Stryker Brigade Combat Team and led it during the brigade's 15 month deployment to Baghdad, Iraq. After brigade command he served as the Deputy Chief of Staff, G-357 at US Army Pacific, Fort Shafter, Hawaii.

He was then assigned to the Pentagon as the Executive Officer to the Director of the Army Staff followed by two years as the Army's Director of Training. He returned again to Hawaii in 2013 where he served sequential assignments as the 25th Infantry Division's Deputy Commanding General for Support and then for Operations. Prior to assuming his current position, MG McCaffrey most recently served as the Chief of Staff, US Army Pacific.

His qualification badges include the Combat and Expert Infantry Badges, the Ranger tab, Airborne and Air Assault Badges, and the Army Staff Badge along with other awards including the Distinguished Service Medal, three awards of the Legion of Merit, three awards of the Bronze Star Medal, and the Valorous Unit Award.

Major General McCaffrey and his wife have three children.
